

WORK VOCABULARY

Exercise 1

[recruit, colleagues, office, overtime, task, client, feedback, internship, meeting, performance]

1. The _____ with the sales team is scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow.
2. She enjoys working with her _____ because they are supportive and collaborative.
3. He completed an _____ at a multinational company before being hired full-time.
4. The company's biggest _____ placed a large order this week.
5. We had to work _____ last night to finish the presentation on time.
6. Please meet me in my _____ to discuss the project.
7. Your main _____ for today is to prepare the monthly report.
8. The manager was impressed by her excellent job _____ this quarter.
9. Constructive _____ is essential for professional growth.
10. The HR department plans to _____ more staff to handle the workload.

Exercise 2

[probation, productivity, colleagues, CEO, office, schedule, workload, skills, contract, deadline]

1. The _____ of the company is known for making innovative decisions.
2. The team is struggling to manage the heavy _____ this month.
3. New employees often have a three-month _____ period to evaluate their performance.
4. Please check the meeting _____ and let me know if any adjustments are needed.
5. He has excellent communication _____ that make him a great leader.
6. Her _____ were very welcoming when she joined the team.
7. The project has a strict _____ that we need to meet.
8. Employees are required to sign a _____ before starting their roles.
9. The _____ will reopen next week after renovations are complete.
10. The company implemented new policies to increase workplace _____.

Exercise 3

[promotion, employee, interview, bonus, resignation, shift, salary, supervisor, vacancy, team-building, strong]

1. He was thrilled to receive a _____ after working hard for several years.
2. She submitted her _____ letter to pursue other career opportunities.
3. The HR department posted a job _____ for a new marketing position.
4. A good _____ ensures that their employees feel supported and motivated.
5. The company organized a _____ event to improve collaboration among employees.
6. The _____ process for the new role will include three rounds of assessment.

7. The factory operates on a rotating _____ system to meet production demands.
8. Every _____ who performs well is eligible for an annual _____.
9. The company offers a competitive _____ along with excellent benefits.
10. A strong _____ is essential to achieve success in major projects.

Exercise 4

[task, report, deadline, productivity, probation, intern, staff, responsibility, contract, appraisal]

1. The new recruit is on a three-month _____ to prove their suitability for the job.
2. The weekly _____ must be sent to the manager by Friday.
3. Every employee is assigned a specific _____ to complete during the day.
4. Writing proposals is one of her main _____ as a project manager.
5. The company is reviewing everyone's performance as part of the annual _____ process.
6. The _____ will be working closely with the marketing department this summer.
7. Increasing employee satisfaction can lead to higher workplace _____.
8. Each employee must sign a _____ before starting their employment.
9. The company hired additional _____ to handle the workload during the holiday season.
10. The final _____ for the project is next Monday.

Exercise 5

[deadline, vacation, performance, promotion, budget, leadership, meeting, project, HR, resignation]

1. She is excited about her upcoming _____ after months of hard work.
2. The manager scheduled a _____ with the finance department to discuss next quarter's goals.
3. A strict _____ was set for the completion of the marketing campaign.
4. Effective _____ is necessary to guide the team through challenging times.
5. The team successfully completed the _____ within the allocated _____.
6. He submitted his _____ letter after securing a new job offer.
7. The employee received a _____ for their exceptional contributions to the company.
8. _____ policies have been updated to include more diversity initiatives.
9. The company has introduced new strategies to improve employee _____.
10. After a stressful year, he decided to take a much-needed _____.