

SIMPLE PAST AND PRESENT PERFECT / FOR – SINCE / ALREADY – STILL – YET

Fill in the blanks with the verbs in parentheses.
Choose the simple past or present perfect form of the verb.

Australia

..... you ever (be) to Australia ? I (go) there about 5 years ago. First, I (stop) in Sydney. I (see) the Opera House while I (be) there, but I (walk not) across the Harbour Bridge yet. I already (be) to Brisbane, but I still (be not) to Cairns. I (hear) from a friend last week that Cairns is beautiful. you (hear) of Ayers Rock ? I (go not) there yet because it's pretty far from Sydney.
When I (be) in Australia last time, I (travel) up the Gold Coast. I (learn) to surf in Surfer's paradise. It (be) fun ! But I never (try) parasailing.
I'll have a lot to do in Australia when I go there again one day !

For or since

Have you lived here many years ?
He has thought about going to Africa July 2012.
My parents have been in California two months.
Marco has dreamed about going to Brazil he was a child.
She hasn't been to Mexico she was six years old.
Julia has wanted to travel to China she saw a TV show about it.
I travelled all over the world the past eight months.
We have camped all over this island the beginning of the year.

For : duration (how long)

Since : starting point

Fill in the blanks with already, still, or yet.
When you're finished, read the dialogue out loud.

I'm trying to decide where to go on my next vacation.
Have you been to Venice ? I haven't been to Italy.
No, but I've been to Europe, and I want to go to another continent.
What about Korea ? I've been to Seoul, and I loved it.
Korea sounds great, but I wanted to do something more adventurous.
Okay, I haven't been to Nepal, but I'd love to go hiking there. How about Nepal ?
I've been to Nepal. It was amazing !
Hmmm. Well, how about going on a safari in Africa ?
Good idea ! I haven't been on a safari
Me neither. Let's go together !